THE MORTARA ABDUCTION.

Indignation Meeting of the Jewish Residents of New York.

The First Mass Meeting of the Jews Since 1840— Strong Speeches and Resolutions—The Abduc-tion and Detention of the Mortara Child Denounced—Addresses of Dr. Raphall, M. de Cordova, Rev. Mr. Isaacs, and Messrs. Joseph Seligman, Alex. Levi, B. W. Hart, Chauncey Shaffer, Rev. Mr. Ja-cobs, Mr. Mills and Henry Morrisson.

Sympathy Expressed by the Jews of Montreal and Philadelphia, gar, son of Momola Mortara, an Israelite resident of Bo-logna. The large hall of the building was quite filled with had it not been for the inclemency of the weather the building would have been too small to contain the quota deeply interested in this matter. This was the first pub lic demonstration of our Jewish residents since 1840, listened to denoted the deep personal interest which was

Resolved, That this meeting acknowledges, with pride and satisfaction, the action of the governments of Catholic France, Austria and Sardinia, Protestant England and Holland, whose remenstrances at Reme against the outrage committed have been actuated by humanity, and by respect for the natural rights of man, and are characteristic of the age in which we live.

Resolved, That the thanks of this meeting are due to the public press of America and of Europe for its zealous advocacy of the cause of right, and for its reproof of fanuticism and mijustice.

Resolved, That the Board of Representatives of the United Congregations of Israelites of the city of New York are empowered to give effect to these resolutions, and to take such further measures as may seem to them advisable.

The CHARMAN then announced that Mr. ALKXANDER LEVI, who represented the delegation from Montreal, would next address them.

Mr. ALKXANDER LEVI, or Montreal, was then introduced, and addressed the meeting in the following terms:—in presenting myself here this evening, by the kind permission of the Executive Committee, I would claim your indulgence for a few monents, and state that, having been delegated by my brother leracities in Montreal to attend this meeting, demonstrates the truth that distance cannot weaken the love of leracit to be kindred. I regret exceedingly that it is not in more able hands, but after the cloquence we have so desphifully intened to this evening, it would be presumption on my part to speak other than to facts that bring me to this degnified assembly. It is to join you, in the name of our or religiouslist residing in Montreal, in an emphatic protest against the abduction of the young Mortara, and show that leracities have claims to the title of mercial children of mercial ones—that much as ever they have their hearts fully imbued with sympathy for their oppressed and less fortunate brother. I am here this evening to assure you that, although dwelling where our hills are capped with smow and our city soon to be girt with an ley barrier, our hearts are warm and illed with deep distress—and I might add the heart also of our worthy and liberal minded Christian fellow townsmen—in learning the unfortunate position of our brethern dwelling under the Papal government, as evinced by the Mortara case; so less favored than we who live under liberal governments, be they republican or monarchical, when each site under his vibre and fig tree and none to make him afraid, yes, where his olive branches can peacefully sit acround his table and neither tribunal nor Inquisition can tear them from him.
